1. Nature of Operations

Bronx Ventures Inc., (the "Company" or "Bronx") was incorporated on August 24, 1984 in the Province of British Columbia. The principal business of the Company is the exploration and, if warranted, the development of natural resource properties. The Company has interests in the Extra High, Blunt Mountain and Whiteman Mineral Properties which are all located in British Columbia and Lithium mineral properties which are located in Ontario.

The Company has investments in the securities of public companies. Up to May 5, 2006, the Company's revenues were mainly derived from its investment in the three card games Software.

The Company's common shares trade on the OTC Bulletin Board in the USA under the trading symbol "BRXVF".

As of January 17, 2005, Lucky 1 Enterprises Inc. changed its name to Bronx Ventures Inc., its capital stock has been consolidated on the basis of 35 (old) common shares for 1 (new) common share and its authorized capital stock has been increased to an unlimited number of common shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares, in each case without nominal or par value.

Effective at the opening of business on January 24, 2005, the common shares of Lucky 1 Enterprises Inc. were de-listed from trading on the OTC Bulletin Board in the USA and the common shares of Bronx Ventures Inc. commenced trading on the OTC Bulletin Board under the trading symbol "BRXVF".

2. Going concern

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a "going-concern", which assumes that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations.

Prior to the Company's 2005 fiscal year, the Company incurred significant operating losses and had working capital deficiencies in previous fiscal years. Management's efforts are directed at pursuing opportunities of merit for the Company. It is the Company's intention to pursue equity and debt financings in order to conduct its operations without interruption.

These financial statements do not reflect adjustments that would be necessary if the "going-concern" assumptions were not appropriate because management believes that the actions already taken or planned will mitigate the adverse conditions.

If the "going-concern" assumptions were not appropriate for these financial statements, then adjustments would be necessary in the carrying values of assets and liabilities, the reported revenues and expenses, and the balance sheet classifications used.

3. Significant accounting policies

(a) Basis of presentation

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and are stated in Canadian dollars.

Notes to the Interim Financial Statements Six Months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 (unaudited – Prepared by Management)

(b) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates and would impact future results of operations and cash flows.

(c) Mineral properties

The Company is engaged in the acquisition, exploration and, if warranted, the development of mineral properties. The mineral properties are recorded at cost. The costs relating to a property abandoned are written off when the decision to abandon is made.

The Company capitalizes all costs related to investments in mineral property interests on a property-by-property basis. Such costs include mineral property acquisition costs and exploration and development expenditures, net of any recoveries. Costs are deferred until such time as the extent of mineralization has been determined and mineral property interests are either developed, the property is sold or the Company's mineral rights are allowed to lapse.

All capitalized costs are reviewed, on a property-by-property basis, to consider whether there are any conditions that may indicate impairment. When the carrying value of a property exceeds its net recoverable amount (as estimated by quantifiable evidence of an economic geological resource or reserve or by reference to option or joint venture expenditure commitments) or when, in the Company's assessment, it will be unable to sell the property for an amount greater than the deferred costs, the property is written down for the impairment in value.

From time to time the Company may acquire or dispose of a mineral property interest pursuant to the terms of an option agreement. As such options are exercisable entirely at the discretion of the optionee, the amounts payable or receivable are not recorded at the time of the agreement. Option payments are recorded as property costs or recoveries when the payments are made or received.

Capitalized costs are depleted over the useful lives of the properties upon commencement of commercial production or written off if the properties are abandoned or the applicable mineral rights are allowed to lapse.

(d) Earnings (loss) per share

Basic earnings/(loss) per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year.

Diluted earnings per share amounts are calculated giving effect to the potential dilution that would occur if securities or other contracts to issue common shares were exercised or converted to common shares. The treasury stock method is used to determine the dilutive effect of stock options and other instruments. The treasury stock method assumes that proceeds received from the exercise of stock options and warrants are used to repurchase common shares at the prevailing market rates. Stock options and warrants that are anti-dilutive are not included in the calculation.

Notes to the Interim Financial Statements Six Months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 (unaudited – Prepared by Management)

(e) Foreign currency translation

The functional currency of the Company is the Canadian dollar. Amounts recorded in foreign currency are translated into Canadian dollars as follows:

- (i) Monetary assets and liabilities at the rate of exchange in effect as at the balance sheet date;
- (ii) Non-monetary assets and liabilities at the exchange rates prevailing at the time of the acquisition of the assets or assumption of the liabilities; and
- (iii) Revenues and expenses (excluding amortization, which is translated at the same rate as the related asset) at the average rate of exchange for the year.

Gains and losses arising from this translation of foreign currency are included in the determination of net income (loss) for the year.

(f) Marketable securities

Marketable securities are valued at the lower of cost and market at the balance sheet date.

(g) Amortization

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. The Company amortizes its assets on a declining-balance basis as follows:

Furniture and equipment - 20%

(h) Stock-based compensation plans

Effective January 2004, the Company adopted the new requirements of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") Handbook Section 3870, which requires an expense to be recognized in the financial statements for all forms of employee stock-based compensation, including stock options. Previously, the Company did not record any compensation cost on the granting of stock options to employees and directors, as the exercise price was equal to or greater than the market price at the date of the grants.

Options granted are accounted for using the fair value method where compensation expense is calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

(i) Flow-through common shares

The Company finances its exploration programs through the issuance of flow-through common shares. Income tax deductions relating to these expenditures are claimable only by the investors. Proceeds from common shares issued pursuant to flow-through financings are credited to capital stock.

(j) Revenue recognition

Prior to May 6, 2006, the Company earned revenues from customers of Las Vegas from Home.com Entertainment Inc. ("Las Vegas"), a related company, in accordance with an agreement which entitled the Company to 40% of revenues that were generated by Las Vegas from certain online games. The Company recognized these revenues as they were reported and received by Las Vegas.

(k) Income taxes

The Company follows the liability method based on the accounting recommendations for income taxes issued by the CICA. Under the liability method, future income tax assets and liabilities are computed based on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities on the balance sheet and their corresponding tax values, using the enacted income tax rates at each balance sheet date. Future income tax assets can also result by applying unused loss carry-forwards and other deductions. The valuation of any future income tax assets is reviewed annually and adjusted, if necessary, by use of a valuation allowance to reflect the estimated realizable amount.

(I) Asset retirement obligations

An asset retirement obligation is a legal obligation associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets the Company is required to settle. This would include obligations related to future removal of property and equipment, and site restoration costs. The Company recognizes the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation in the year in which it is incurred when a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The carrying amount of the long-lived asset is increased by the same amount as the liability. The adoption of this accounting policy has not affected the Company's financial statements.

4. Financial Instruments

(a) Fair value

The fair values of cash and term deposits, amounts receivable from related parties, accounts payable and accruals, and amounts payable to related parties approximate their carrying amounts because of their short term to maturity. The fair value of marketable securities approximate quoted market values, as disclosed in note 5.

(b) Interest rate risk

The Company is not exposed to significant interest rate risk due to the short-term maturity of its monetary assets and liabilities.

(c) Credit risk

The Company is not exposed to significant credit risk with respect to its cash and cash held on behalf of related party because the funds are held in a recognized financial institution.

Notes to the Interim Financial Statements Six Months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 (unaudited – Prepared by Management)

(d) Market risk

The Company is exposed to significant market risk with respect to marketable securities from adverse fluctuations in their market value and in the event the marketable securities are delisted from public trading.

On March 26, 2004, the Company entered into an Option Agreement with an arm's length party (the "Optionor") in respect to certain mineral claims, which are situated in the Kamloops Mining Division in the Province of British Columbia (the "Extra High Mineral Property"). Pursuant to the terms of the Option Agreement, the Company has the right to acquire a 100% interest in the Extra High Mineral Property, subject to a 1½% net smelter returns royalty, by making staged cash payments totalling $150,000 and incurring exploration expenditures on the Extra High Mineral Property totalling $500,000 over a period of three years. Upon the Company earning a 100% interest in the Extra High Mineral Property, the Company may at any time purchase 50% of the net smelter returns royalty by paying to the Optionor the sum of $500,000 leaving the Optionor with a 0.75% net smelter returns royalty.

On September 12, 2006 the Company and the Optionor amended the Option Agreement by entering into an Amending Agreement whereby the Company has the right to pay the Optionor, on or before June 26, 2007, the sum of $60,000 and to incur exploration expenditures on the Extra High Mineral Property of not less than $216,230.

Notes to the Interim Financial Statements Six Months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 (unaudited – Prepared by Management)

On September 8, 2006, the Company entered into an Option Agreement with Colt Capital Corp. ("Colt"), a related company, whereby Colt has the right to acquire a 50% undivided interest, subject to a 1½ % NSR Royalty payable to an arm's length party, in the Extra High Property by incurring exploration expenditures of $240,000 on the Extra High Property by no later than February 28, 2007 and by making cash payments to the Company totaling $133,770 by no later than March 26, 2007 of which $25,000 has already been paid to the Company by Colt. Upon Colt earning its 50% undivided interest in the Extra High Property, both Colt and Bronx shall thereafter equally contribute to all future exploration costs. If any party fails to contribute its share of future exploration costs, then its respective interest will be diluted on a straight line basis. If any party's interest is diluted to less than a 10% interest, then that party's interest in the Extra High Property will be converted into a 0.5% net smelter returns royalty.

As a result of Colt's $25,000 cash payment to the Company, the Company's total investment in the Extra High Mineral Property has been reduced by $25,000 to $348,879. As of September 30, 2006, the actual amount spent on the Extra High Property since acquisition totals $373,879 which consists of $90,000 in cash payments made to the Optionor, $9,647 in respect to cash payments for staking, assessment and miscellaneous costs, and $274,232 of exploration related expenditures incurred since acquisition.
